A CARD.
SPRINGDALE, KY., June 19th, 1894.

Editor Public Ledger, Mayesville, Ky.—Dear Sir: In your issue of June 16th in a card over the signature of T. P. Degman I am viciously assailed and accused of various wrongdoings and misdemeanors, to each of which I plead not guilty. All I will now say is to ask your many readers to suspend judgment in this case until not only these charges, but some others that have hitherto been made against me, are passed upon by a competent tribunal of "my brethren in the church," who, after hearing the testimony, will be better able to judge whether or not there is "malice aforethought." Respectfully,
C. C. DEGMAN.

Are you insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.

If you need spectacles or eye glasses, don't have them fitted in the old-fashioned way by any one who may have them for sale. Consult us. We examine your eyes scientifically and make the glasses to fit. We can give you the names of hundreds from our prescription book who have been successfully fitted by our method who never had glasses to suit them before. We guarantee satisfaction in every case, and make no charge for examination. Ballenger, Jeweler.

On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him.
